Mr. Buck,

We, the Seniors, are happy to dedicate this annual to you. You have rendered services and assistance to us during our years here above and beyond the call of normal duty. Our appreciation is inexpressible in this dedication.

We dedicate this yearbook to you in the hope that throughout the years to come you will remember our class with fond memories. And with this dedication we extend to you our wishes for a golden future.

The Class of 1964

To the Seniors of 1964, the Annual Staff, and the Class Sponsor:

I commend you having dedicated this yearbook to a most worthy person. His devotion, his helpfulness, and his cheerful disposition make Mr. Buck one of the most worthy individuals I have known.

It has been said, "The key to success is service: first to God, second to your fellow man and third to yourself." I believe Mr. Buck is a fine example of that philosophy. Therefore, I challenge every student of Plainview School to learn a valuable lesson from his efforts, and adopt these principles of service as a foundation upon which to build your life.

Your superintendent,

P. T. Nall

Administration

Seniors:

I wish to compliment you on the very good annual you have produced. I feel the effort and time are well spent, and I know it is another educational venture that you may use to great advantage in the future. I wish you the best of luck after graduation and may your lives be happy ones.

Sincerely,

1964 SENIOR ADDRESS

A decade and two years ago, our class began at this school a long journey, conceived with eagerness and dedicated to learning the ways of our civilization.

Now we are taking the final steps of that journey, almost ready to test whether this class, or any class, so conceived or so dedicated can succeed.

We are met on this school ground, the scene of our journey, to dedicate this annual, the Plainview INDIANS for 1964, to all who have helped us along the way. It is altogether fitting and proper that we do this.

But, in a larger sense, in no way will this dedication be sufficient. The teachers who have endeavored to instruct us, the parents who have guided us, have been worth far more than our meager words can tell.

The world will little note nor long remember what we did here, but we will never forget what was done for us here.

It is for us, the graduating class, to be ready to accept our responsibilities. We are highly resolved that these efforts shall not have been in vain; that these people who have helped us will be always proud to say that they had a part in forming the future of the Senior Class of 1964, and that our class might long be remembered for our achievements.

 and stay that way. Best of luck (with the boys that is).
 Sonny (Seph. 63, 64)

Tydia

I wish you all the luck in the world and hope that you will always remember me. I have really enjoyed going to school with you and kidding you. Good Luck
 Berlin

I am always thinking of you and hope you are happy and successful in your career.

the only one I want Sonny Seph (63-64) the best wishes to Tydia
